Kimball Solutions Nanjing

▣ Started at Kimball Solutions in 2022

- Joana is a resident of Jiangning District, Nanjing City, Jiangsu Province. When outside of work, she prefers to spend most of her time swimming, watching TV series commentary, and climbing mountains.
- What attracted her to be part of Kimball Solutions is its outstanding slogan “Creating Quality for Life”, which briefly explains the core idea of the company: not only providing customers with better products but also creating a more comfortable working environment for employees and others.
- Joining Kimball Solutions allowed Joanna to grasp knowledge of the new-energy automobile industry that contributes to her personal development. Her favorite memory with the company is when she attended a celebration for earning a Quality Improvement award with other colleagues. Their professional knowledge and active life were encouraging, and she now believes that they all have the ability to develop themselves for the future.
