

Damian Glodek

Health and Safety Specialist
Kimball Solutions Poland

▶ Started at Kimball Electronics in 2015

- Damian lives in Poznań, Poland. In his free time, he enjoys running, going to the gym, and taking long bike trips. He also likes spontaneous getaways with his wife and reading books.
- Damian began his career at Kimball Solutions in production, later moved to the process engineering department, and today is part of the Safety team. His proudest professional achievement is joining this department. He especially enjoys leading safety trainings and demonstrations, as they give him the opportunity to connect directly with others and promote practical approaches to staying safe. He appreciates that his work has a meaningful impact on people's safety and well-being. He is also an active member of the CSR team, supporting the local community and participating in charitable initiatives.
- Damian values the friendly culture at Kimball Solutions, built on teamwork and a positive atmosphere. He enjoys shared lunches, welcoming treats for new employees, and birthday cakes
