

Rock Xu

Traceability Engineer
Kimball Solutions China

▶ Started at Kimball Solutions in 2017

- Rock Xu lives in Nanjing, China, where he enjoys staying active through fitness, listening to music, and working on cars. His hands-on hobbies reflect a practical mindset and attention to detail that carry into his daily work.
- Rock has been with Kimball Electronics for nine years and currently serves as a Traceability Engineer at Kimball China. He previously worked as a Process Engineer and Automation Engineer, and he particularly enjoys analyzing and resolving software and hardware issues. Rock is most proud of teaching himself software programming during his time at Kimball and applying those skills to improve his work.
- During his time at Kimball Electronics, Rock has valued working with a team that is supportive, communicative, and always willing to help one another. He appreciates the company's clear direction and openness to new technologies, as well as the opportunity to connect with colleagues by sharing common interests. One of his favorite memories is participating in company-organized group travel activities.
