- Alicia lives in Jasper, Indiana, with her husband Tyson and their five children. When she's not at work, Alicia enjoys spending time with her family and doing interior design.
- Kimball Electronics is Alicia's employer of choice because of its welcoming culture and professionalism: "We truly live by our Guiding Principles at Kimball Electronics."
- Alicia has sentimental value with Kimball. Both of her parents retired from the company after working there for a combined 85+ years. "Having the opportunity to become part of the tradition is an honor and I am grateful to be a part of it."
