

Dang Hai Dang

Quality Assurance Manager
GES Vietnam

▣ Started at Kimball Electronics in 2018

- Dang resides in Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam. He loves to spend his free time programming, and especially enjoys structuring automated systems and applications to apply for daily work.
- In his role, Dang enjoys the challenge of problem solving. "GES is a high technology company; every project brings us unique challenges which we have never faced before." "To be part of a team full of passion and dedication, to overcome all the challenges together, is always a remarkable moment to enjoy."
- GES is Dang's Employer of Choice because of the company culture. He thinks that the people-focused culture is what makes GES unique and appreciates that the people of GES are dedicated team players. "We have the same target; we share the same vision and always support each other."
