MORE ABOUT MINGLIANG

Mingliang resides in Nanjing, China where he enjoys watching TV and playing badminton in his free time. One of his favorite memories with the company was traveling to Jasper, Indiana for an annual Engineering Council Meeting.

Kimball Electronics is his employer of choice because the company provides reasonable arrangements, help, and many opportunities to its employees. On behalf of company, Mingliang placed third in the Jiangsu Province Innovation and Technology Competition which is a professional achievement he is most proud of. He also continues to study new technology and learn knowledge from sister plants to expand the continued success within the Kimball Electronics China facility.
