

Truong Thi Cong Bang

Project Accounting Manager

▶ Started at Kimball Electronics in 2008

- Bang is a resident of Thu Duc City, Vietnam. Outside of work Bang spends time with family and traveling.
- Kimball Electronics GES Vietnam offers Bang a great environment to grow and improve. One of her favorite memories with the company is when everyone went to BCR district 9, a nature park in Ho Chi Minh City to participate in team building activities and have fun.
- A professional achievement that Bang is most proud of is being promoted to Project Accounting Manager. The warm and welcoming environment that Kimball Electronics GES provides has taught Bang that it is always best to do the right thing. Her favorite office traditions are when the activities bring the team together like family.
